CAN SINGLE WOMEN BE HAPPY?

By Rev. Donald F. Miller, associate editor of "The Liqueur"

Great many modern writers seem to be gravely concerned over the so-called frustrations and unhappiness of the vast number of single women who are following careers and holding down jobs in the modern world. These authors trace all her problems back to the single fact that she has never hitched onto a man in marriage.

Some psychologists like to call religious fervor a "substitution complex"—by which they mean that religious people are trying to compensate and substitute for the thwarting of many of their natural inclinations through imaginary contacts with God in heaven.

BUT THE TRUTH is that absolutely no substitute can be found by any human being for the knowledge and love of God. Not to know God, not to know how the human heart is made to love God, or to have turned away from God, is the most basic and universal form of frustration in the world today.

To state this in a positive manner, frustration can be avoided by any human being, married or single, who looks on life on earth as a brief span of test and trial and preparation for an unending life of perfect happiness with God: who realizes that in every state there are sufferings to be endured, temptations to be resisted, disappointments to be accepted; who is convinced that the only real failure, the only fatal cause of frustration, is selfish sin.

CAN SINGLE WOMEN be happy? Millions of women throughout history have shown that they can remain single and yet be very happy in life. Love God with your whole heart and soul and mind and will, and you will never know frustration.

WHAT MAKES the difference between the happy and frustrated single woman? The happy single woman knows there is only one way to be truly happy, and that is to be devoted, either through ignorance or through sin, of the knowledge and love of God, and of the assurance of eternal companionship with God in heaven.

LEADING FEATURES

AT MISS. SOUTHERN

HOMECOMING, OCT. 25

Hattiesburg, Miss. - The election of officers of the Alumni Association, the reunion of the 1915, '28, '38 and '48 classes, a huge parade and, of course, the football game between the Southern and West Texas State, will be leading features of Mississippi Southern's 47th Homecoming Celebration Saturday, Oct. 25.

A full program for the celebration was announced today by Alumni Secretary, Powell G. Ogletree.

The Annual Business Meeting, during which new officers will be named, is slated for 1 p. m. and will be held in the college cafeteria following a "Dutch" luncheon at noon.

Alumni President, C. L. Milling of Meridian, will open the business session and during its course will turn the gavel over to incoming president, Daniel W. Dabbs of Hattiesburg.

Candidates for the office of President-Elect are Maxwell V. Rush of Mobile and R. E. Shoemaker of Brooklyn. The one who is chosen will serve a year in the capacity of President-Elect and will automatically assume the presidency at the 1959 Homecoming celebration.

Other officers who are elected will serve under Mr. Dabbs this year. Candidates are: Vice President, Mrs. B. B. Bradley, Jr., of Columbia and Rev. Edwin Barksdale, New Orleans; Committee Members: Perry Purvis of Tupelo and Mark Grimes of Greenville, Northern District; Dr. S. A. Bradford and Rex McKaney, both of Jackson, Middle District; Dr. M. Coats of Columbia and Dr. J. R. Switzer, Dean of Student Welfare at the College; and Mrs. John McCarty of Baton Rouge, La. and Tom McGros of Mobile, at-large.

A coffee for members of the classes being honored will be held at 10 A. M. in College Union. Each class will be assigned a room on the third floor of the building.

The Annual parade will be staged in downtown Hattiesburg and is set to begin at 3 p. m. All campus organizations and groups have been invited to enter a float. Trophies will be awarded to the group that has the winning float in beauty, originality and special contribution.

Saturday night's grid battle will be a second re-match of the teams that met in the 1957 Tangerine Bowl. West Texas beat the Southern 20-13 in the Orange classic but Southern bounced back in the regular season to hand the Texans a 34-0 shellacking.

Mississippi Southern's new field house will be shown off for the first time. Open house is scheduled at the building between the hours of 10 a. m. and 12 noon. The new faculty houses, lecture rooms and complete dressing and training room facilities. Freshman football players occupy the second.

Other events slated Homecoming day and night include an executive committee meeting at 11:15 a. m. in the Alumni Office, open house welcoming by the fraternities and sororities, 5-7 p. m.; Alumni M Club open house, 5-7 p. m.; President's Legislative Dinner, 6 p. m.; Homecoming Dinner, 10:30 p. m.; and Alumni Mixer, 10:30 p. m.
